

NEWS

2 Canadian banks hacked, 90,000 customers' data stolen

Two of Canada's largest banks, Bank of Montreal and the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce's Simplii Financial, confirmed hackers stole the personal and financial data of thousands of customers.

CSO Online

May 2018

Air Canada locks down 1.7 million mobile app accounts after breach affects 20,000 customers

Aeroplane numbers, passport numbers, birth dates, nationalities and countries of residence could have been accessed

Financial Post

August 2018