Network Firewall

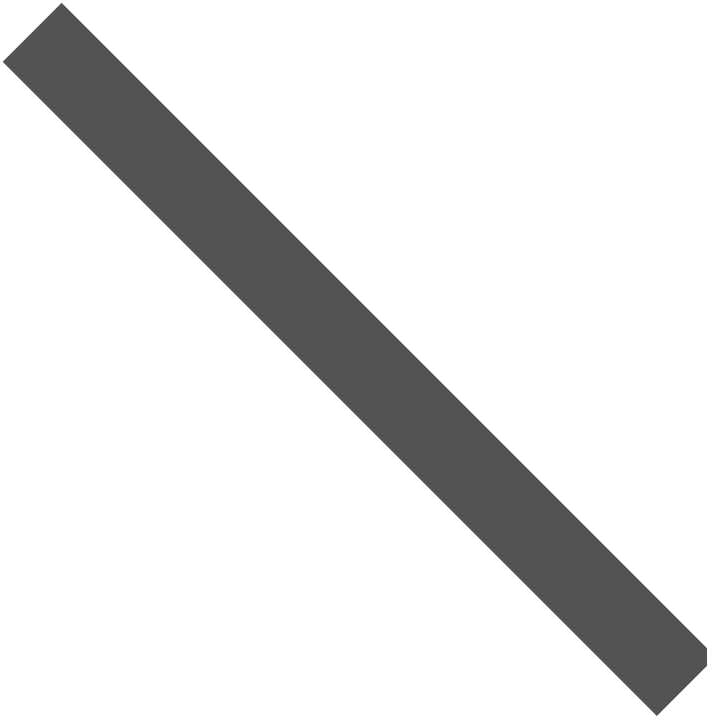

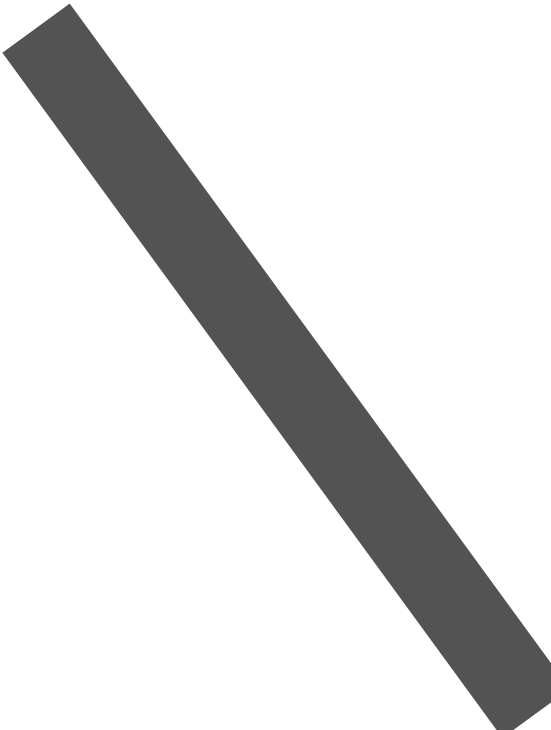

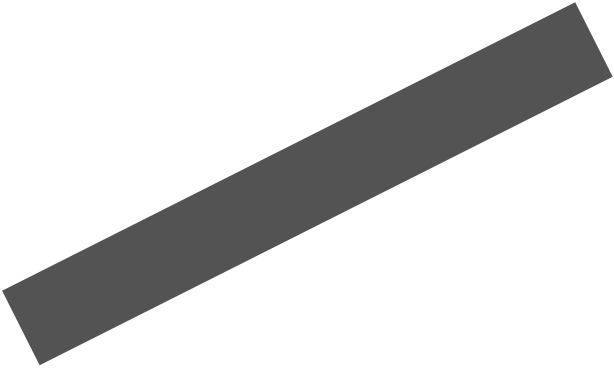

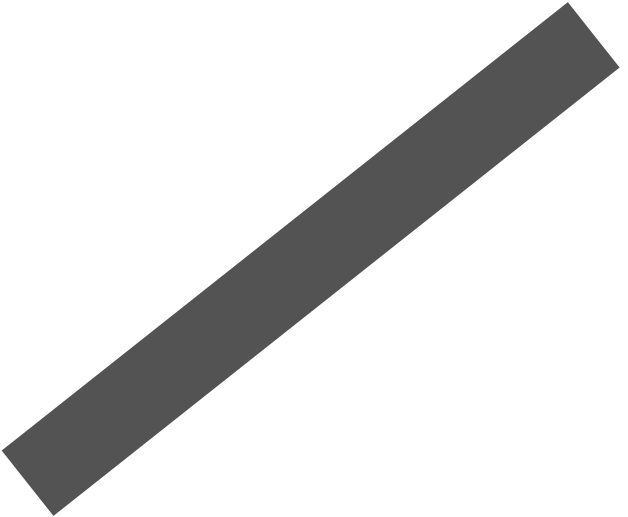

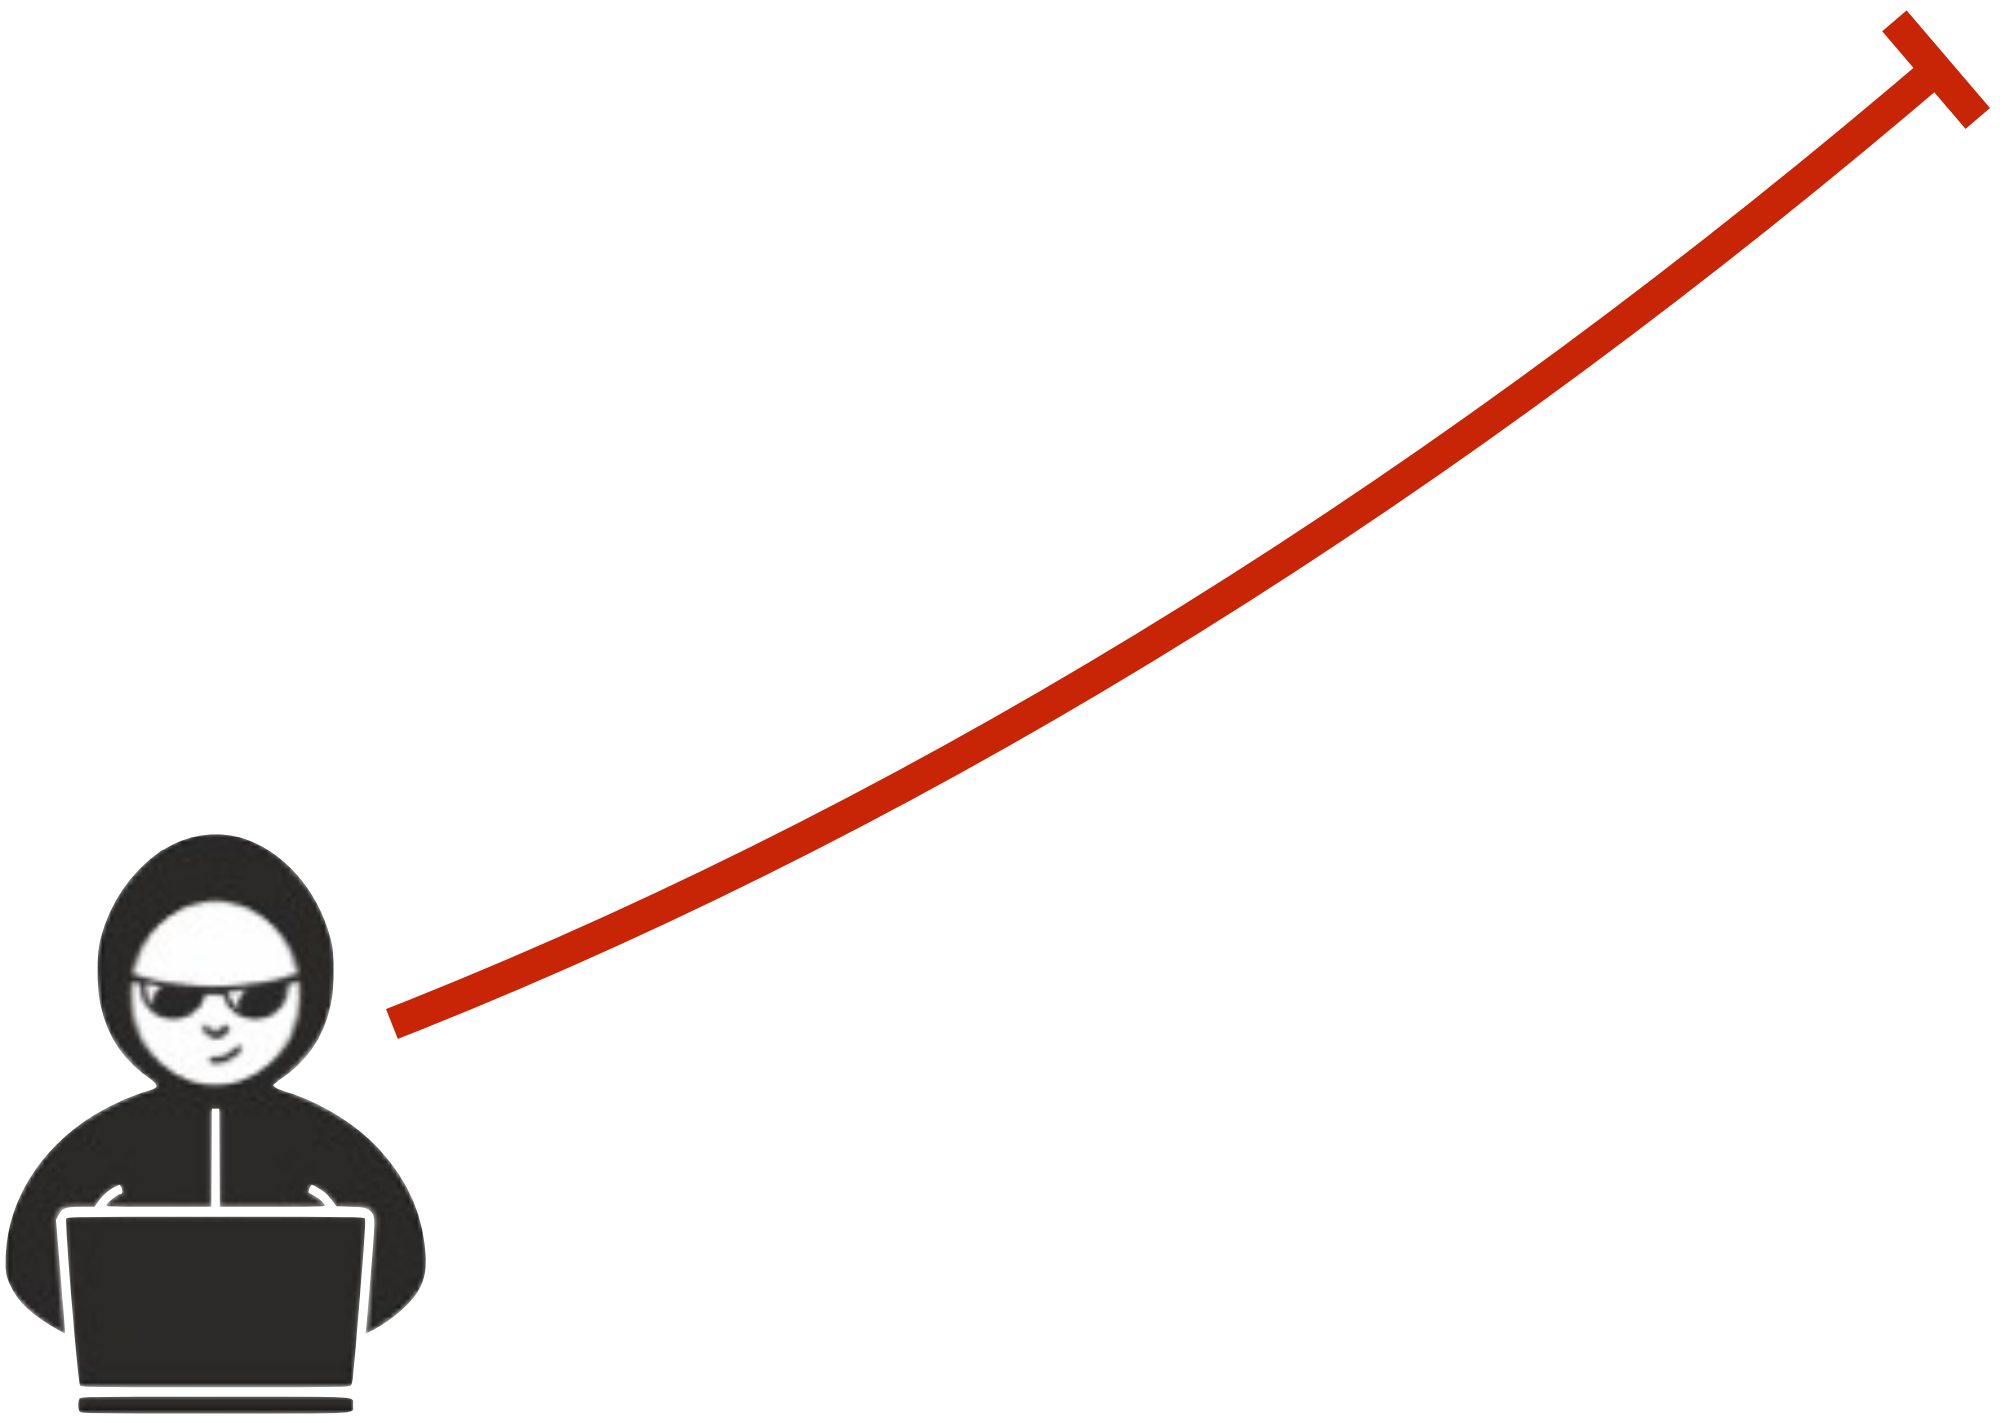

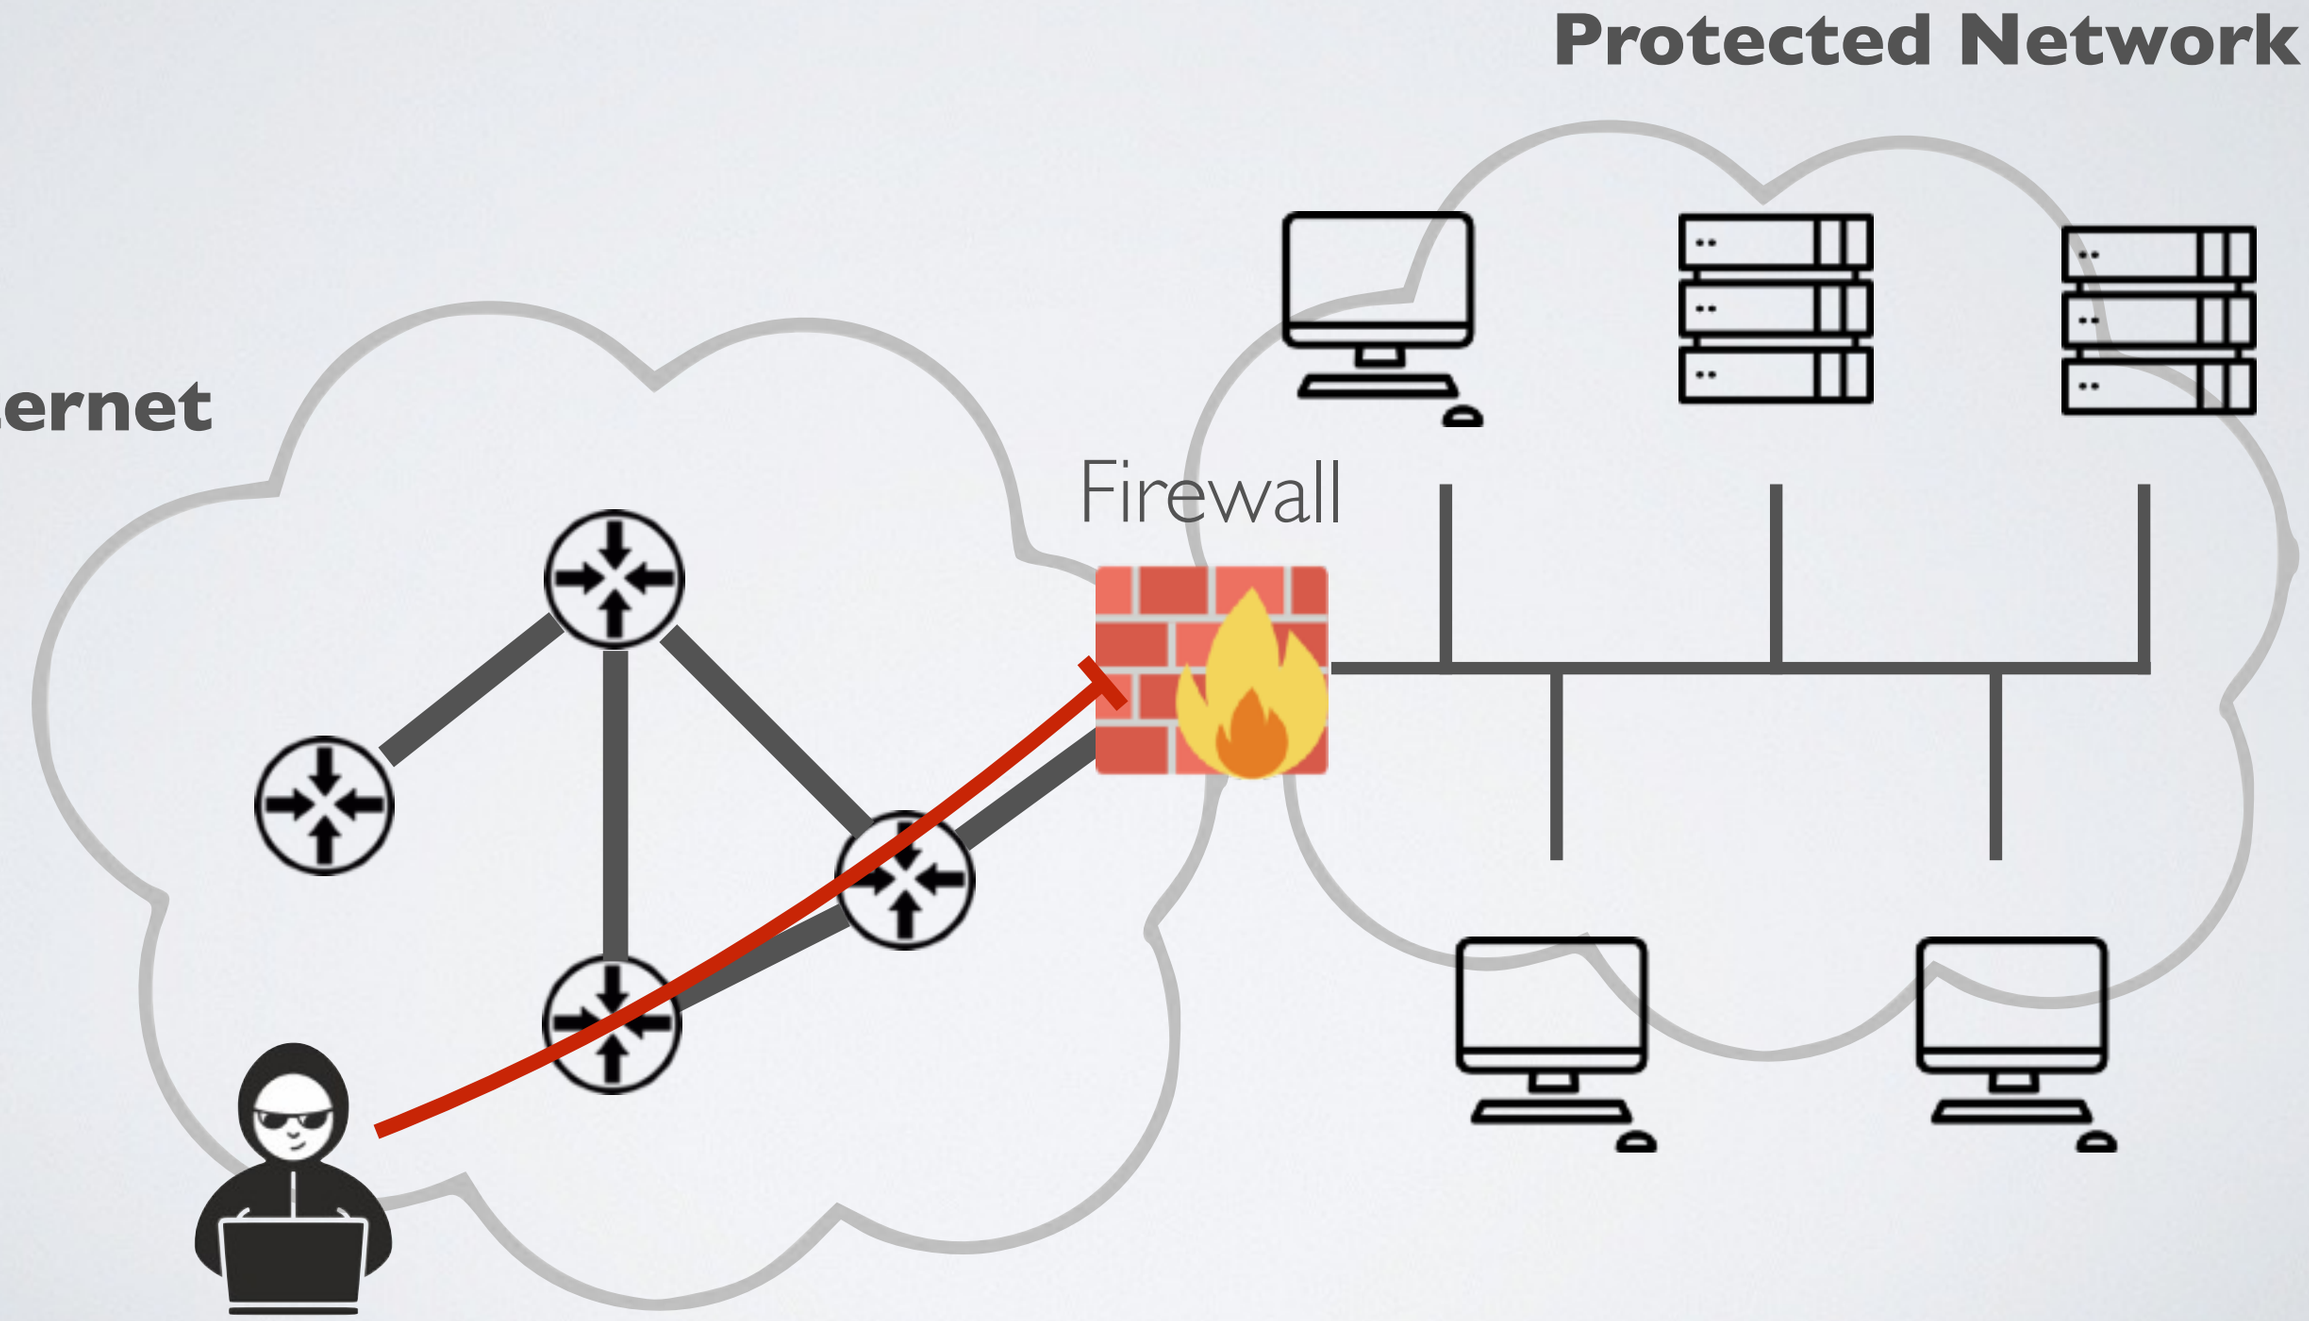

Protected Network

Internet

Firewall

Network Firewall

Network Firewall

A firewall defines a logical defense parameter and acts an access control between two networks

➡ Packet filtering based on IP addresses (TCP filtering)

- inbound traffic from the Internet trying to get into the protected network
- outbound traffic going the other way

✓ For the most part, we trust the outbound
but not the inbound